Church History

The San Fernando Vally reformed Church was founded in July 27th 1958 by pastor László Kecskeméthy and Antal Szabó. The first mass was celebrated couple months before at Maj 25th. At the first times the congregation had no church, the mass was kept at the home of the pastor, and later in other's church. The property where is the church standing today was purchased in 1973. In December 13th 1992 the church was demolished with a big fire, but after 3 years tireless work, the community inaugurated the new church. The ribbon cutting ceremony was in September 17th 1995.
